BILL SUMMARY

Synopsis: This Act relates to child abuse; Clarifying that a person who makes a good faith report of child neglect or abuse is immune from civil liability, whether or not the abuse was committed by a parent, guardian or custodian.

This amendment in Section B removes the language of “as a result of a report required by Section 32A-4-3 NMSA 1978” and replaces it with “pursuant to the Abuse and Neglect Act”.

This amendment also adds the statement, “For the purpose of this subsection, the alleged abuse or neglect need not have been committed by a parent, guardian or custodian in order for the immunity to apply.”
