Re: Inspection of Public Records Act (IPRA) Complaint against The Children's Safehouse/All Faiths Receiving Home, 2nd Judicial District Attorney and the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office

Dear Ms. Lucero y Ruiz de Gutierrez:

We have completed the review of your complaint against the Children's Safehouse/All Faiths Receiving Home, the 2nd Judicial District Attorney's Office and the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office under the Inspection of Public Records Act ("IPRA"), NMSA 1978, §§ 14-2-1 to -12 (1947, as amended through 2013).

In the complaint, you allege that the Children's Safehouse/All Faiths ("All Faiths") violated IPRA by failing to respond to your request for records of an interview; that the 2nd Judicial District Attorney violated IPRA by failing to forward requested records to the proper custodian and to allow inspection of documents within established timeframes; and that the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office (BCSO) violated IPRA by failing to respond with three days to your requests of August 19, 20, and December 16, 2015 and failing to allow inspection within 15 days. We have reviewed the responses from these agencies and now conclude that none of these agencies violated IPRA.

All Faiths

As to the records of the interview from All Faiths, IPRA does not apply to that agency, as the agency is not a "public body" for purposes of IPRA. See § 14-2-6 (defining "public body" to include executive, legislative and judicial branches of state and local governments as well as all advisory boards, commissions, committees, agencies or entities created by the constitution or any branch of government that receives public funding). All Faiths is a private, not-for-profit organization, not created by the constitution or any branch of government. Further, as you were advised by the organization, you would need a subpoena to access the information you requested because of multiple legal protections for information on medical conditions and/or services provided by All Faiths. See 45 CFR §§160.504 and 164 (protecting the security and privacy of individually identifiable health information, including mental health information, under the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Pub. L. 104-191 (“HIPAA”)); All Faiths’ contract for the Crime Victims Reparation Commission Victims of Crime Act Victim Assistance (VOCA) formula grant, Item No. 40 (requiring All Faiths, if compelled by court order to release personally identifying information to attempt to notify the victim and take steps necessary to protect privacy and safety of persons affected)(emphasis added); Item No. 10 of All Faiths’ contract with the Children Youth and Families Department (CYFD) (requiring that all confidential information be kept confidential); and No. 11 (stating that all materials developed by All Faiths under its contract with the state becomes the property of the state). All Faiths was not required to respond to your request and did not violate IPRA by declining to send you records of the interview.

2nd Judicial District Attorney’s Office

Your complaint alleged that the 2nd Judicial District Attorney provided no records, failed to forward requested records to the proper custodian, and failed to allow inspection of documents you requested within established timeframes. On December 30, 2015, you enclosed a copy of your November 2, 2015 request of the Albuquerque Police Department for records; the 2nd Judicial District’s records custodian responded timely that it had no responsive records. The agency forwarded your request to the district court, an entity it believed could possess responsive records and so informed you, satisfying its obligations under the “wrong custodian” provision of IPRA. See § 14-2-8 (E). Because 2nd Judicial District had no responsive records, it was not obliged to do more. Therefore, it complied with IPRA.

Bernalillo County Sheriff’s Office (BCSO)

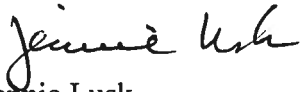

You complained that BCSO failed to respond with three days to your records requests of August 19, 20 and December 16, 2015, and did not allow inspection within 15 days as required under IPRA. BCSO’s response to the inquiry based on your complaint stated that the agency did not receive the August requests, and that your December request did not request documents from BCSO. Instead, your December correspondence informed BCSO that you had requested records from other agencies, and requested “clarification” on a memorandum of understanding (MOU) between BCSO and Albuquerque Public Schools. Because you did not request records from BCSO, BCSO was not required to respond to you. BCSO did not violate IPRA in these circumstances.

Conclusion

As discussed above, we conclude that All Faiths, the 2nd Judicial DA's Office and Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office responded appropriately to you and, therefore, acted in compliance with IPRA.

Accordingly, this Office considers this matter closed.

Sincerely,

Jennie Lusk
Assistant Attorney General
